Eric,

Thank you for your fantastic work in creating an eye-popping website for my business. Working with you has been a great experience and I appreciate your patience, time, and creative touch in the design and implementation of both the full version and mobile version of the site. The website for CCCLS is now far superior to any of our competitors, giving us a very strong presence in our industry.

If you ever need a reference for future projects, please do not hesitate to share my contact information. I would be more than happy to share my positive experience.

Please just send a bill whenever I instruct Patrick to contact you to make changes here and there. I foresee minor updates every so often in regards to timely information.

Best Regards,

D. Jeffrey Ehart
